A. W. Plyler submitted the following and it was adopted:

“At a joint meeting of the Boards of Missions and Boards of Church Extension of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences held at Trinity College, June 15, 1920. President W.

P. Few read a letter from Mr. J. B. Duke stating that he desired that the fund which he is annually contributing to the country church work in North Carolina, be administered through Trinity College. Dr. Few then requested that there be created a Duke Fund Commission composed of six members equally divided between the two Conferences.

In accordance with action taken at this joint meeting the Boards of Missions and the Boards of Church Extension of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences recommended to the two Conferences:

1. That a "Duke Fund Commission" be created as hereinafter provided to have charge of the administration of the Duke Fund.

2. That a Commission in co-operation with the appointing power of the Conferences shall so administer the Fund as to carry out the wishes of the donor in the upbuilding of the country churches of the Methodist Church in the State of North Carolina.

3. That the Fund shall be kept separate from the regular work of the Boards, and the reports made to the Conferences from year to year shall disclose the use being made of the Fund and result secured.

4. That the undertakings of the Commission shall in no way interfere with the regular work of the Boards but shall be directed to the supplementing of their work in such a way as to promote to the utmost the well being of the country church in the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences.

5. That the Commission shall give special attention to doing real constructive work in promising fields in the way of building adequate church houses and in developing leaders for doing this work of the church of the open country, stress being placed upon real aggressive work in this day of material advance.

6. That the Commission, acting in co-operation with Trinity College and under the terms of the gift, shall work at plans and devise methods for the most effective use of the Fund, and at all times keep itself informed concerning the needs and possibilities of the country church and be free to take advantage of situations as they may arise, in every case of co-operation with the pastor and Presiding Elder in the work undertaken.

7. That the Commission be composed of six members equally divided between the two Conferences, one member to be nominated by the cabinet, one to be nominated by the Board of Missions, and one to be nominated by the Board of Church Extension, of each Conference.

8. That the term of office be for three years and that whenever the term of any member expires, or his place becomes vacant for other reasons, his successor shall be elected by the Conference to which he belongs, upon nomination of the cabinet or the Board which he represents.

9. That the present Commission be constituted as follows:

Walter Patton and J. H. Barnhardt to serve for term expiring at the Annual Conference in 1921. J. E. Holden and A. W. Plyler for term expiring at the Annual Conference in 1922, and M. T. Plyler and R. M. Courtney for term expiring at the Annual Conference in 1923.

1. Like a balmy breeze from a congenial clime, Dr. H. C. Morrison of Kentucky, blew in upon us and through his charming personality his brotherly spirit, his gracious manner, has won every heart in attendance upon the Conference. His spiritual ministrations, his exaltation of the Christian life, his emphasis upon the work and atoning blood of Jesus Christ have gripped every life and endeared him to the entire Conference. The Conference will entertain for him the highest regard and the sincerest fraternal love. We cherish the hope that he may visit our Conference again.

L. D. THOMPSON,
W. A. LAMBETH,
LEROY SMITH,

Committee on Resolutions.

2. The members of the Western North Carolina Conference now closing its 31st Session, desire to thank most heartily the entire membership of First Church, Salisbury, for their overflowing hospitality, and their innumerable courtesies shown the members of our Conference. We wish to thank also the other Methodist churches of the city, as well as the members of other denominations who have received us so cordially. We are under obligations to the whole city for favors received.

We wish to thank especially the Local Committee on Arrangements for supplying Post Office facilities, baggage and checking arrangements, looking after the transportation of the ministers and delegates to their homes, furnishing writing material and stationery of all kinds, securing excellent homes for the ministers and delegates in our own and other denominations and providing excellent places for dinner and supper. We want to thank them for the excellently arranged and convenient rooms for the committees and boards and well appointed church for Conference Sessions, providing beautiful flowers for the Bishop and the Conference.

We wish to mention the splendid music of Prof. Scott Hunter, the wizard of the keys, and his excellent choir, also Rev. Luther Bridges. We thank the city newspapers for giving prominence to the work of the Conference. For all of these things and many others we have failed to mention we most sincerely thank the good people of Salisbury.

L. D. THOMPSON,
W. A. LAMBETH,
LEROY SMITH,

APPENDIX

REPORT NUMBER ONE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

I. WHEREAS, the General Conference in its prophetic consideration of the two great responsibilities of the Church, recommended that there be two Church-Wide Movements in the present quadrennium: one for Missions and one for Christian Education in the following resolution:

“We recommend that the right of way be given to the Centenary Movement in the first two years, and to the Educational Campaign during the second two years of the quadrennium, and that during these two periods as far as possible the full power of the Church be delivered in these respective campaigns.”

II. And, whereas, our Conference Educational Institutions are in pressing need of additional funds in order that they not only may move forward with the progress and development of the Church, but in truth even in order to maintain their present efficiency under changing conditions, and, whereas, we recognize the fact that our Educational Institutions have by order of the General Conference been kept for the past two years from presenting their needs to the Conference and connection.

III. And, inasmuch as the tragic events of the past few years have taught that education without Christ is a mockery, and, therefore, that if America is to be true to its mission, education must be Christian.

IV. And, whereas, our denomination is now short eight hundred preachers, and is calling for hundreds of missionaries and trained workers not now available, and inasmuch as we recognize our responsibility for recruiting and training young men and women for this work if our Church is to grow and serve.

V. And, inasmuch as we feel, therefore, our responsibility jointly with the other Conferences to focus our attention this year upon all the processes of Christian Education in the home, the church, and the school.

BE IT RESOLVED:

First—That this Conference co-operate most heartily in the plans of the Educational Commission's five-fold objective in carrying out the instructions of the General Conference as follows:

1. To develop in the mind of the Church an adequate conception of the place of Christian Education in the life of the Church, of the nation, of the world.

2. To promote the cause of religious education by bringing about a closer and more effective co-operation between our Institutions of learning and Sunday Schools and by establishing strong departments of religious education in our Colleges and Universities.

3. To lead at least five thousand young men and women to pledge themselves to devote their lives to the ministry, to missions, or to some other form of Christian service and to seek a Christian education as a preparation for effective service.

4. To raise for our Schools, Colleges and Universities at least Thirty-Two Million Dollars, the minimum sum necessary to enable them to send out the constantly-increasing streams of educated Christian leaders required to carry forward the Christian work of the world and to secure one million dollars to aid worthy students who are looking to some form of Christian service in their efforts to obtain an education.

5. To deepen the moral and spiritual life of our people and to promote the spirit of Christian liberality in all the efforts put forth to realize these objectives.

Second—And be it resolved, that we take all proper steps to fix the attention of all our people upon the fundamental place of Christian Education in the life and mission of our Church and that to this end, we urge pastors to preach and teach, and laymen to lend their influence in every possible way.

Third—That we call upon our people for their prayers in behalf of the presidents and faculties and trustees of our schools, for our young people in attendance upon them, praying especially, that the right young men and young women may be led to give their lives as preachers, missionaries and trained workers, and that these schools may supplement the work of home and church in leading the young people of this generation to the acknowledgement of Christ as their Lord and Master, in whatever work they may choose.

Fourth—That Rev. Z. E. Barnhardt be added to the Educational Commission appointed at last Conference.

Fifth—That we assume as the quota for this Conference the sum of $1,607,300, and authorize the Conference Educational Commission, with the help of the Presiding Elders, to divide this amount equitably among the churches of the Conference.

Sixth—That we request the appointment of a Conference Educational Secretary to be the full-time executive of the Conference Educational Commission and that we pledge such Secretary, when appointed, our full loyalty and support.

Seventh—That we call upon our churches to co-operate in a manner worthy of the impelling need of our Christian Education Program in arousing every member to an appreciation of his or her responsibility and in giving fullest financial support in the collections to be taken next spring.

Eighth—That on the second Sunday in November, and as many Sundays thereafter as may be necessary, this matter shall be presented in all our churches.

G. T. ROWE, Chairman,
D. M. LITAKER, Secretary.

From the reports of our schools we show the following facts as being worthy of special mention. We note with pleasure the continued growth of efficiency and number of students enrolled in Emory University, at Atlanta, Georgia, and most heartily commend this school to the favorable consideration of our young ministers and would urge them to avail themselves of its advantages. We are also gratified to note the increased usefulness of our Correspondence School, and would urge our undergraduates in the Conference courses of study, as far as practicable, to avail themselves of its services in their preparation for their work of the ministry.

The reports from Trinity College, Greensboro College, Davenport College, Rutherford College, Weaver College, Jefferson School, and Weddington Industrial Institute all show that these Institutions are over crowded and turning away students for lack of room. We rejoice at the improvement and enlargement now in process of being made, or planning to be made in every one of these Institutions.

It is the judgment of your Board that these Institutions of ours stand in great need of every dollar of the askings of the Educational Movement. When they shall have received this needed support, they will be in position to adequately handle the demands being made upon them.

We recommend for the coming year, an assessment for the school work of our Conference of $22,500.00 and $2,000.00 for the Sustentation Fund. The amount raised on assessments for our Conference schools shall be apportioned as follows: To the support of the Ivey Chair of Biblical Literature at Trinity College, $3,000.00; Summer school and incidental expenses, $500.00; Of the sum remaining there shall be paid on a pro rata basis as follows: Greensboro College for Women, $3,750.00; Davenport College, $3,750.00; Rutherford College, $3,750.00; Weaver College, $3,750.00; Jefferson School, $2,000.00; Weddington Industrial Institute, $2,000.00; Sustentation Fund, $2,000.00.

We request the General Board to appropriate the sum of $8,000.00 to the schools within our Conference. The same to be divided as follows: Rutherford College, $3,000.00; Weaver College, $3,000.00; Jefferson School, $1,000.00; Weddington Industrial Institute $1,000.00.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

POLICY OF BOARD

Your Board wishes to reaffirm the policy respecting Mission charges which was adopted at the 1919 Conference session and printed in the Conference Journal of 1919 on pages 50-52.

OUR PRESENT TASK

Dr. W. W. Pinson, General Secretary of the Board of Missions, in a communication to our Board says: "It must be evident to all that we face nothing less than a new Church and a new world. It is entering upon a new era, the final goal of which no prophet can forecast. It is equally true that the Christian Church has been shocked out of its traditional routine and lifted to a higher vision and a more daring conception of its mission and responsibility. To ignore these facts is to miss the significance of the hour and squander its opportunity.

The Centenary is an outstanding factor in the statement just made. It interpreted and forecast the new awakening and broader vision of the Church by its spirit and results. Grateful as we must be for that which has been accomplished, we would be false to the true meaning if we should allow ourselves to be lulled into satisfaction and fail of its higher purpose and possibilities, by even a temporary slackening of our energies. The Centenary should be to us not a foreground of fulfilled ideals, but a background against which to project the larger and more enduring plans of a Church which has come to a new self-realization in this world's greatest hour of need.

Three results of immediate significance have come to us out of the Centenary which confirm the above view:

1. The enlargement of our existing mission fields and institutions, the extension of fields and the multiplication of missionaries, calling for a vastly increased continuous expenditure and enlarging the responsibilities of the home administration.

2. The opening up of a new mission in three countries of Europe, with the prospect of a fourth at the opportune moment, which is hereafter to be one of our most commanding and extensive missionary territories, is an inheritance which invites a forward-looking and vigorous program for our Church.

3. Home Missions under the new conditions revealed by recent surveys becomes almost a new discovery. It is evident to the most superficial student that the scale on which we have been conducting our Home Mission operations will not answer for the present day demands.

CENTENARY COLLECTIONS

All this emphasizes the importance of a full collection of the Centenary pledges. The slogan adopted by the Centenary Commission of "No Shrinkage but an Increase" is not a meaningless one. Every day gives emphasis to its wisdom. We cannot too strongly urge the importance of these collections being made promptly and thoroughly, not only from a financial standpoint, but also in order to preserve the confidence of the Church in its own ability to do things and for the maintenance of a good moral for the future. The undertakings of the future will depend largely upon the financial outcome of the Centenary. The missionary forces are all deeply interested in the success of the Educational Campaign. It is earnestly desired that nothing we do shall hinder, but everything we do shall help to make that campaign a success. We believe profoundly that that a prompt collection of Centenary pledges will go far to encourage liberal contributions to the Educational Campaign. We can think of no better method than that set forth in the Standard Plan, and we would urge its use in every church. We recommend that the week, December 5-12, be set apart as "Full Collection Week" on first and second payments on all Centenary pledges in stations and the month of December be full collection month in circuits. We urge that in so far as possible every church in the Conference join in the effort to secure the payment in full of all Centenary pledges now due.

CENTENARY SPECIALS

One of the outstanding agencies for collecting pledges, cultivating the spirit of liberality and making permanent the financial awakening of the Church is through our Bureau of Specials. Through this agency an aggregate of more than eight million dollars in Specials has already been assigned for the five years. In our Conference, about $465,000.00 has been assigned in specials. It is very desirable that the pledge of every church and Sunday School, as well as every considerable pledge which has been made in the Centenary, should be assigned as a Special. We solicit the co-operation of our pastors in this work of assigning specials.

THE MINUTE MEN

Through the educational period of the Centenary, the Methodist Minute Men rendered invaluable service. It is important that this organization be maintained and worked. Much of the credit for the success of the Campaign must be given to the Minute Men. These men ought by all means, to be largely used in the collection of the pledges and in every other phase of Centenary Conservation.

MISSIONARY LITERATURE

We recommend the organization of mission study classes for the study of missions. We also commend the Missionary Voice and urge that it be placed in every home.

EVANGELISM

The Committee on Evangelism plans a constructive campaign for the coming year and heartily craves the co-operation of all the pastors and presiding elders of the Conference. We hope to be able to carry, by our strongest men, the Christian truth into our rural communities.

Again this year, as last, the revival meeting at Trinity College will be held in co-operation with the Evangelistic Committee of the Board of Missions and Dr. E. K. McLarty, of our Conference, will be in charge. The committee requests that the Annual Conference agree to pray unitedly, especially during the week of this meeting, for the outpouring of the Holy Ghost on the students and community. The date of the meeting will be the week following January 31st. We recommend the appointment of Rev. P. E. Parker as Conference Missionary Evangelist, and Rev. Jim Green, and Rev. G. W. Fink, as Conference Evangelists.

TEXTILE INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTE

We recommend the adoption by our Conference of the following plan of co-operation between certain Annual Conferences and the Textile Industrial Institute:

1. For the present, no change shall be made in the title and ownership. If the co-operating Conferences should desire part proprietorship, this may be determined later.

2. The Institute is proffered for the joint use of said Conference in training young men and women for social, educational, and religious work specifically in mill communities.

3. The co-operating Conferences shall elect, through their respective Boards of Missions, one associate trustee of the Textile Industrial Institute Board for the direction of the Institute.

4. It is understood that each co-operating Conference will contribute financial support to the Institute in such a manner and amount as each Conference may determine.

We recommend the appointment of J. F. Shinn as associate trustee of the Textile Industrial Institute.

SELF SUPPORT

In accordance with the policy of your Board, as adopted at the last session of the Conference, we have inaugurated an Honor Roll to contain the names of the Mission charges as they become self-sustaining. We are pleased to place on this Honor Roll the names of the following charges:

Flat Rock and Fletchers, Gibsonville, Ruffin, Walnut Street, Cliffside, Cottonville, Westford and Harmony, West End-Gastonia, Grace-Winston-Salem, Davidson-Winston District.

We recommend the re-appointment of R. M. Courtney as Conference Missionary Secretary, and we nominate Chas. H. Ireland as Conference Lay Leader.

We nominate Dr. E. K. McLarty as a member of the Board of Managers of the Summer School at Trinity College.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

The unusually large number of applications for aid this year from our limited funds has greatly embarrassed this Board. We cannot help all that need aid. But we have done, in the combined judgment of the Board, the best we could with the funds in hand.

The following appropriations have been made to parsonages and churches:

Parsonages	Donations
North Monroe -----	$ 500.00
Chadwick -----	175.00
Salem, at Winston-Salem -----	500.00
Lafayette Street, Shelby -----	750.00

The matter of Group Insurance referred to the Board of Finance, has been carefully considered. After hearing a representative of an Insurance Company, we beg leave to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, great demands have been, and are being made upon the Conference and whereas, the Brotherhood of our Conference has been making a successful effort, during the past year, to greatly increase its membership, and whereas, the beneficiaries of deceased preachers now receive $1750.00, it is the sense of your Board that our Conference should continue to endorse and encourage the Brotherhood in its efforts to increase its membership, rather than undertake the group insurance at this time.

W. C. HOUSTON, Chairman,
M. D. STOCKTON, Treasurer,
W. O. GOODE, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

The Commission on Finance has considered the claims of the various interests, both General and Conference, and report that the assessment for general work is for 1921, $78610, being an increase of $3300. Of this amount, $3100 is the assessment of one per cent of amount paid for support of the ministry for General Superannuate and Dowry Fund omitted last year by oversight. The balance is a mistake in the figures of last year.

For Annual Conference Work, we recommend an assessment of $96,700, the two assessments to be distributed on the following percentage to the various causes.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

The Sunday School Board is happy to announce that Mr. Oscar V. Woosley will continue, for another year, his work as Sunday School Field Secretary; also, that Miss Ida Womack, of Reidsville, has been elected to the office of Superintendent of the Elementary Division of Sunday School work. Both will have headquarters at Lexington, North Carolina.

The reports for this year show that the enrollment of our Sunday Schools has been increased during the year, by the addition of over 7,000 new members, thus making the total enrollment of our Sunday Schools 99698; that the observance of Sunday School day has increased two-fold during the year; and that one new Wesley Bible Class has been enrolled at headquarters for each Sunday of the year.

The Board wishes to commend the authorities at Trinity College for putting two courses in Sunday School work in the Summer School for preachers, one course on rural work, and one on organization and administration; also, for entertaining in the college buildings the Wesley Bible Class Federation for both Conferences; and for the offer of instructors for the Standard Training Schools that are to be conducted during the coming year.

As in former years, Sunday School Day Programs will be furnished, free of charge, to all Sunday Schools that observe the day and send in the offering to the Treasurer of this Board. The Board hopes that every Sunday School in the Conference will this year observe the day. The programs will be furnished by the Field Secretary. The offerings taken on that day should be sent immediately to Mr. H. A. Dunham, Treasurer, Asheville, North Carolina. From time to time, during the year, the Treasurer of the Board will have published in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the names of the Sunday Schools that have observed the day, as well as the amount of the offering sent in from each School.

The Sunday Schools of our Conference have sent in to Centenary headquarters, during the entire Centenary period, the amount of $21,000. Of the thirty-eight Conferences that have subscribed to the Centenary, our Conference Sunday Schools, in the amount of money paid in, stand fourth from the top.

The Board requests that the Conference urge that Circuit Sunday School Institutes on each circuit be held four times this year, preferably on the Fifth Sundays, or on the Saturdays preceding.

During the year the General Board Workers will set a time for the observance of "Children's Week," a week during which what a child needs and what injures the character of the child, will be emphasized, a time when each congregation will be asked to see if something additional cannot be done for the better spiritual development of the children of the School who are twelve years old and under. This Board requests all pastors and superintendents fittingly and adequately to observe "Children's Week."

W. A. LAMBETH, Chmn.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

It is especially gratifying to note the steady progress of Epworth League work throughout our connection. The number of new chapters reported this year is almost exactly twice that of last year. We are delighted to find League sentiment growing in our own Conference. Forty-four new chapters have been reported and in addition, there has been a disposition everywhere to give the Epworth League a larger recognition.

The call for strong aggressive leadership in the church has never been louder or more urgent than now. The need for the enlistment of our young people in Christian activity has never been more pressing. There is a cry for more preachers, more missionaries, deaconesses, settlement workers, etc. The number required to meet this situation is bound to increase from year to year, and since during the past twenty years the very great majority of all such skilled laborers have had a part of their training in the Epworth League and in many instances have found here their first desire and inspiration for such work, does it not follow that the Church in our Western North Carolina Conference must give more attention to the organization and development of this Institution of the Church to which she must look in the future for those stalwart sons and bright daughters, fashioned after the similitude of a palace, who are to lead us into that new and larger day which seems not far ahead of us? With the vast army of our young people mobilized and trained, we can throw them into any strategic situation that may arise and save that situation gloriously for God and humanity.

Your Board gives its unqualified endorsement to the work of Miss Grace Bradley, our Field Secretary, and asks for her continuance in this work. We also wish to commend to our young people, especially the Epworth Era, one of the best periodicals in America. The work of our Summer Conference and the Epworth League Assembly at Lake Junaluska is becoming more constructive, as well as inspirational, every year, and we insist that all our Epworth Leaguers attend these meetings.

We rejoice particularly in the interest manifested in the Junior League and urge all of our pastors to give the Epworth League, both Junior and Senior, an opportunity to help them among their children and young people.

LEE A. FALLS, Chairman,
J. F. ARMSTRONG, Sec'y.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

We face today a restless, selfish, materialistic, atheistic age. Men are going to and fro in the earth and knowledge is increasing, but the thoughts of men turn to evil continually. Unless we can capture the minds of men for Christ and win their hearts for Him, our race will run rapidly away from God, and rush recklessly down into the Red Sea of ruin. Hell has wide gates to receive a wicked world. This is a perilous hour, and our pulpits should cry aloud and spare not. But the prophet with his red hot word from God, out of a red hot heart, in this red-hot situation, needs to have his winged words reinforced by the written Word which shall remain with men as a perpetual reminder that God is calling them to repentance.

We, your Board of Christian Literature, realize our solemn responsibility in looking into the question of our religious literature and in seeing to it that its leaves shall be scattered far and wide in the world "for the healing of the nations." We feel that this can and must be done. The truth as taught by our consecrated authors and editors, must find hospitality in the hearts of men "lest we forget" and lest those hearts be "turned into hell with all the nations that forget God."

Our Publishing House at Nashville sends us a moving report telling us that $28,000 were lost the past year in the publication of our General Organ, the Nashville Christian Advocate. We are pained to learn further, that a large part of our preachers do not take and read our General Organ. This should not be. All our preachers should read this great paper for their own mental and spiritual good, as well as for the profit of those to whom they minister.

We recommend that our Conference take it as our bounden duty and that we pledge ourselves to raise at least 500 new subscribers to the Nashville Christian Advocate and that these subscribers be parcelled out to the several districts as follows:

Asheville District, 54; Charlotte, 46; Greensboro, 46; Marion, 48; Mt. Airy, 36; N. Wilkesboro, 30; Salisbury, 56; Shelby, 50; Statesville, 54; Waynesville, 44; Winston-Salem, 56.

This is but an average of two new subscribers to each charge. We can not afford to do less.

We have before us the report of the Board of Publication of our Conference Organ, and we endorse all its recommendations and attach it herewith as a part of our report.

We wish to thank heartily our retiring editor and business manager, Rev. L. S. Massey and Rev. H. M. Blair for their good and faithful services to our Church, and to assure our incoming new editor of our prayers for him and our sympathetic interest in his work.

O. P. ADER, Chairman,

C. F. SHERRILL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The Annual Meeting of the Methodist Board of Publication was held in the office of the North Carolina Christian Advocate on Thursday, October 7th, 1920, and adjourned to Monday, October 18th, 1920. The following members were present: D. B. Coltrane, T. C. Hoyle, W. P. Few, N. L. Eure, M. Bradshaw, S. B. Turrentine, M. T. Plyler, and Joseph G. Brown.

The special commissioners appointed by the last session of the two patronizing Conferences to confer with the Board of Publication as to certain changes in the charter, to-wit: Rev. John F. Kirk and Mr. J. F. Bruton, met with the Board and agreed that said Board make the change suggested in the following report:

"The Committee appointed to revise the Certificate of Incorporation of the Methodist Board of Publication, Incorporated, to wit: J. F. Bruton, J. F. Kirk and T. C. Hoyle, met in the President's office at Trinity College, Durham, North Carolina, on June 8th, 1920, at 4:00 o'clock P. M., when and where the following proceedings were had:

REPORT

After considering the Certificate of Incorporation and discussing the same, the Committee recommended that the same be changed as follows, to wit: That all of Section 4 of said Certificate of Incorporation, after the line 'D. B. Coltrane and H. A. Page for a term of five years' be stricken out and in its place, substitute the following: And at the expiration of term of each incorporator, or any future member of the Methodist Board of Publication, his successor shall be elected for a term of five years by the Conference he represents upon nomination of the Board of Publication, provided, that in case of vacancies for other cause than the expiration of the term of said member, said vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the term by the Board of Publication. And provided further, that the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences shall be and are equal and joint owners of said corporation, and that said corporation shall be under the jurisdiction, control, and direction of said Conferences.' "

The report of the Agent and Treasurer, Rev. H. M. Blair, gave a complete inventory, in itemized statement of receipts and disbursements for the year, also a financial statement of the condition of the business as it appeared on October 1st, 1920. The financial report showing the condition of the business October 1st, 1920, is as follows:

RESOURCES

Office Building -----	$ 20,000.00
Machinery and Fixtures -----	25,095.00
Paper Stock on Hand -----	5,948.01
Accounts Receivable, -----	2,229.16
Cash Items -----	13,914.36
Mailing List, estimated -----	6,000.00	$73,186.53

LIABILITIES

Investment -----	$ 36,899.92
Accounts Payable -----	1,903.41
Surplus, 1919 -----	32,941.42
Net Earnings -----	1,441.78	$73,186.53

The unsettled conditions and constantly increasing expense of material and labor make it more and more difficult to manage the business without financial loss. In view of the unsettled conditions, your Board would suggest that some step be taken to augment the income. There are only two methods that we might suggest, that is to increase the price of subscriptions or raise a special fund to supplement the income. Your Board is decidedly of the opinion that the latter method would be preferable.

The Board received with regret the resignation of Revs. L. S. Massey, as Editor, and H. M. Blair, as Associate Editor and General Manager. The Board wishes in this connection, to express its grateful appreciation of their loyal and devoted services and to commend them as true servants of Christ and ministers of His to any people to whom they may be sent.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend that a Campaign be launched in both Conferences early in the year for the increase of the circulation of the Advocate, and suggest that each Conference be requested to secure not less than 2500 new subscribers and at the same time endeavor to hold the old list of subscribers intact.

2. We recommend that not less than $5,000.00 be raised the coming year to supplement the income of the Board, and that the amount be equally divided between the two Conferences and distributed to the Districts as are other claims.

3. We call again attention to the suggestion of an endowment for the Advocate. During the year the sum of $250.00 heretofore contributed by Revs. M. C. Field and J. D. Buie and certain other friends of the cause, has been loaned, and is now the nucleus of what we hope to see grow into a large and helpful fund

Rev. Gilbert T. Rowe, D. D., has been elected Editor and General Manager for the ensuing year, and we request that the Bishop appoint him to this work.

We nominate T. C. Hoyle to succeed himself as member of this Board.

D. B. COLTRANE, President
THOS. C. HOYLE, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CHILDREN'S HOME

The Children's Home is again permitted to report a good year. The health of the children has been excellent. We again escaped Influenza, having no case during the epidemic of either year.

The Home through the stress and strain of the war times rendered as much service as it was able to do under the conditions prevailing. It is now laboring diligently to enlarge its capacity and will take additional children under its care just as rapidly as it can.

The Building Fund Campaign has succeeded beyond the reasonable expectation of those who fully realize all the difficulties which hedged themselves around it. At the time this report is written, the total amount is not available, as quite a number of settlements are to be made at Conference. Announcement of final results will be made on the Conference floor.

The management of the Home recognize that the time given us by the Conference to raise this Fund by organized effort has elapsed. The Home has no desire to ask any added courtesies at this time. There are a few congregations, however, which, on account of special local conditions, have deferred taking up collections for this Fund. These expect to do this during the next few months. We should be glad for the Conference to give them permission to do so.

At this point, we desire to express our lasting gratitude to the preachers who labored so faithfully in behalf of the Home; to acknowledge our indebtedness to our Director, Mr. J. T. Mangum, who served us absolutely without compensation, except such as may come to his heart from the sense of a task well performed; and to speak our grateful appreciation to Rev. W. F. Sandford for diligent and faithful service rendered.

The Home has long felt the need of hospital facilities. The conditions are these:

1. No Orphanage in the State, as far as we can learn, is in a position to take children unless they are represented as being in practically sound health. We are therefore, placed in the illogical position of refusing admission to the child to whom affliction or unsound health is added to his poverty and his natural need.

2. While the health of the children in the Home is generally good, there are numerous ones who need treatment for their eyes, ears, throats, and other similar troubles. We can have these treated, as we now stand, to a very limited degree. The hope of success for these children as they go out of the Home, would be much larger, and the pleasure of living greatly increased if these defects could be remedied.

3. It is our observation and belief that there are many children throughout our territory in destitute circumstances, who for lack of a little surgical or hospital treatment, will grow up to be a burden to themselves and a charge on society. A child's hospital on our grounds could promise relief in some of these cases.

Learning that Mr. B. D. Heath left the sum of $40,000.00 to the Conference, the income of which should be used as the Conference should direct, "Giving due heed and deference to any request made by my executors or nearest descendants," and learning that the family of Mr. Heath had addressed a letter to the Conference regarding the disposition of this bequest; the Methodist people of Winston-Salem make this proposition to the Conference: That they will build on the Home grounds the first unit of a Child's hospital, the unit to cost not less than $40,000.00, provided the Conference will turn over to the Trustees of the Home, the $40,000.00 of Mr. Heath, the income of which to be used to support the hospital. It is the desire of the Winston-Salem contributors that the Institution be named "The Heath Hospital for Children."

We ask that the Conference make answer to above proposal at this session.

The late John Neal, of Winston-Salem, left in his will a few gifts to friends, and, after these are paid, the remainder of his property to the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co., trustee, for the benefit of the Oxford Orphanage and the Children's Home.

Under the provision of Mr. Neal's will, the income from the estate is to be paid in equal amounts to the two Institutions and they are to use it for the care and education of the orphan children who shall from time to time be committed to their keeping.

The trust should amount to not less than $500,000.00 for the two Institutions.

As far as we are able to find out, this large contribution, made with Mr. Neal's characteristic simplicity and modesty, is the largest single gift to charity ever made in this section of our country. A man, without family, he becomes "father to the fatherless" in the years and years to come.

We nominate J. T. Mangum as an additional trustee.

We ask the Bishop to appoint W. F. Sandford, Secretary to the Corporation.

Respectfully submitted,

T. F. MARR, President.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD

"The Bible is the one great International Book." It is found everywhere on the face of the earth. No other one book reaches every tongue spoken in these United States. It is a fact that when the department of Immigration had to make ready to meet the new language test established by Congress, it had to turn to the Bible as the one Book which was available to any one who came in a port of entry, in which it could be tested whether he was literate or not.

Gilbert Murray, of Oxford, in a recent volume says: "The principle that will solve the problem of war is not democracy, but internationalism, or brotherhood. The relation of the Bible and Christian literature to the new internationalism is that of "aeroplane escadrilles."

Wherever the Bible is a cherished Book there are the members of an international society which can not be shaken. The American Bible Society has issued in 104 years of its service, one hundred and thirty-seven million, nine hundred and three thousand, nine hundred and thirty-nine (137,903,939) volumes. It is doing a world service, not confining its work to our country. It has printed the Scriptures in 72 languages at the Bible House in New York. It circulates the Bible in more than 150 languages and types. In the United States in 1919, it issued Scriptures in 83 languages; abroad it issued Scriptures in 101 languages.

It issued in 1919 at home, 1,734,864 volumes; abroad, 2,017,445; a total of 3,752,309 volumes.

Of all the benevolent channels aside from our own Church enterprises, there are none so worthy to receive a part of our title money over and above the small assessment apportioned to cover charges.

The Conference has raised this year $1,959.21 just $19.00 more than last year. The assessment was $2,259.00.

We were glad to have with us, and hear the address of Rev. R. N. Hartness of Virginia, who spoke to the Conference on the work of the American Bible Society.

N. R. RICHARDSON, Chmn.

C. M. PICKENS, Sec'y.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Your Committee feels a heaviness of heart, a grave fear, because of habitual practices by our people on God's Holy Sabbath Day and knowing that we must lose this day forever to the detriment of our people, unless we turn about face, and realizing the vital need of our young people for more thorough religious training and the inevitable peril that faces them in failing to remain after Sabbath School for the regular church service, we urgently request our pastors to insist upon, and our parents to compel their children to attend at least one church service each Sabbath day.

We disagree with the idea that compulsory church attendance creates a distaste for said services. We also ask that they refrain from using jazz music but rather to use the sacred songs on this day.

We deplore the thoughtlessness of our people in Sunday automobile riding, especially at the hour for evening worship and beg them to have a holy regard for this hour, using discretion as to when they shall ride.

We further deplore the Sunday games which many of our people recognize, and move that a committee of three, consisting of H. K. Boyer, D. E. Henderson and E. R. Welch, be appointed by the Conference to secure or to attempt to secure the passage by our Legislature of a State-wide law prohibiting Sunday golf and similar games. And that the North Carolina Conference and other religious bodies be invited to co-operate with us in securing such action.

We urge our people to insist upon the Sunday closing of grocery stores, fruit and cold drink stands, ice cream parlors, and places of obtaining gasoline and that our drug stores remain closed except for professional necessities.

L. B. HAYES, Chairman.

MRS. GEO. A. HOYLE, Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE*NUMBER ONE

We rejoice in the great Prohibition victory by which legalized beverage intoxicants have been banished from our Country. A victory made possible through the Church's prayers, preaching, and long continued Temperance Education and efforts of the Anti-Saloon League, and finally won by those faithful Congressmen who bravely stood for truth and sobriety in our National Legislature. For this League and these congressmen we would bespeak the grateful recognition of this Conference. We feel led to hope that the liquor evil will, within a few years, be banished from the earth. But we can not ignore the danger to prohibition threatened in the possible repeal or amendment of the Volstead Act, to which Act we would pledge our loyal support; nor can we ignore the great growing blockade business which only faithful officers backed by strong public sentiment, can destroy.

We deplore the present disregard for law in some communities of our State caused in many instances, by laxity in its execution; and we would respectfully insist that the authorities and officers responsible for the arrest, prosecution and just punishment of its violators shall so faithfully perform their duties as to remove all occasion for existing complaints.

We believe that the now too prevalent Coca Cola habit should be discouraged as being extravagant, often injurious to the minds and bodies of those who indulge in it.

We believe our Church law requiring candidates for admission into our Conference to abstain from the tobacco habit, should be strictly observed, and that the promise made should be faithfully kept, if for nothing else, then in the interest of personal veracity and in simple regard for law.

We are sorry to note that the atmosphere of the House of God is yet sometimes polluted by tobacco, and the beauty of its sacred precincts is marred by its use. But we note with pleasure that these offenses are year by year growing beautifully less, and we feel encouraged to hope that the glad day is dawning when all God's people, especially our ministers who have promised to abstain, shall even in their habits of personal liberty, do all they do to the glory of God.

NUMBER TWO

The Church faces a great opportunity in this day of world change. The vast structure of society is undergoing transformation beyond the understanding of any man. It belongs to the whole Church to think through and to pray through. In a little while society will again crystallize around new ideas and it behooves us as a Church to see that these ideas express the mind of Christ our Lord. If we fail at this time, no such opportunity will be presented to us again until through revolution the old fabric is torn down and a ruin is presented us for rebuilding.

In international affairs, we ask all men to think of all men, for all men are bewildered as we are and nearly all of them are in far worse state for clear thinking than we are. The only ground for the brotherhood of man is to be found in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Let us press forward as a Church militant toward the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth. Let the mind that is in Christ Jesus be in us. It remains for the Church to stand firm by its ancient creed of love and mercy, of righteousness and fairness, with help for the unfortunate and cure their ills. The old Gospel with a clear understanding of the new day will be as a pillar of fire and cloud and under it we can move with the will of God.

We reiterate our adherence to the Social Creed of the Federal Council of Churches, and pledge our co-operation to the utmost to give this creed expression in the affairs of men, and we request that it be printed upon the first page of our Christian Advocate and read in all the churches this year.

We pledge our support to any measure looking to the improvement of our Public Schools. So long as children are turned away from the doors of our public schools, or crowded into ill ventilated, badly heated rooms, so long as we do not pay the salary that will attract expert teachers of character, we are practicing a false economy. We are so far failing in our public duty of Christian nurture, and must not be surprised when boys under these conditions grow restless, become truants, get into trouble and finally come into the juvenile delinquent class. Our schools for both white and colored, are inadequate. We urge your support in the development of the system to the highest efficiency for every child at what ever cost may be necessary.

We rejoice in the advance made by our State in social legislation, the greatest advance made by any State in any one year in our history. We pledge our support to these measures, and yet, proud as we are of this record, we must face certain facts and admit that our care of the weak, the helpless, the immature, the juvenile delinquents, both white and colored, is inadequate and unworthy a great rich State and a professedly Christian citizenship. So long as young girls drift unmothered and untrained along our streets, walking in dangerous places, many of them certain to join the lamentable procession of lost womanhood, we have not done our Christian duty. The firm, kind authority of the training school with its program of work, study and play with religious education, would be their salvation, and such a school we must have.

We have taken a long step forward in the legislation establishing the County Welfare officer and the Juvenile court; but what use is it to create this machinery, unless we provide some other place than the poor house to commit the colored juvenile offender, some school for white girls, and enlarged facilities for white boys? We commend to our Legislators the message of our Governor, asking for a reformatory for colored delinquents, and again urge adequate provision for wayward children of both sex.

We request the appointment of a social service committee in every church as the Discipline requires and urge that the duties of these committees be more clearly defined.

Recognizing that children and young people need wholesome recreation, we suggest that the social service committees of our churches be asked to work out plans for the promotion and supervision of recreation and social activities adapted to the needs of their local communities.

Your Board would call attention to an evil, serious enough to demand consideration, namely: an immodest style of dress too prevalent among women. While we would not rob woman of comfort and charm, we protest against the half-clad or gossamer clad figure, which is too often submitted to the public gaze; a menace to the moral safety and spiritual welfare of our coming men and women. We are glad to know that women standing high in social circles are organizing in favor of a return to modesty in dress, and we earnestly appeal to Methodist mothers to influence their daughters to conform to the principles of correct dress.

W. M. BORING, Chairman,
T. J. OGBURN. Secretary.

REPORT ON SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

Your Committee with deep gratitude to God, notes the fact that some very extra ordinary revivals have been held within the bounds of our Conference this year. In some instances these were conducted by the pastors; in others they were in charge of one of our Conference or general evangelists, and while we heartily thank God for those who feel called to give the whole of their time to evangelism and urge that they be kept busy, at the same time your Committee can not refrain from insisting that our pastors themselves undertake in some measure at least, to "do the work of an evangelist."

Your Committee believes that no work of the church approaches in importance the development of the spiritual life. Without for a moment seeking to minimize the importance of developing our people in matters financial, educational and social, we believe the thing of prime consideration is to have them meet God's conditions so conscientiously and fully that they may normally and constantly "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ" and thus become so empowered by Divine help as to be able to resist all temptation to do wrong and win sinners to a Godly life.

Your Committee does not feel that it can pass unnoticed some of the hindrances to spiritual growth. One of these is cold indifference to the church and her wonderful program. Many of our church members do not seem to recognize the fact that she has the very first and the very highest claim upon them.

Another great hindrance to spiritual growth is worldliness. During the period of the war, our people discontinued many of the questionable amusements of the day, but immediately upon the signing of the Armistice and the return of our soldiers, the ban was lifted and for the past two years it is almost certain that America has never known such laxness in this direction. In the largest and most powerful denomination of Christians in this country, there has come in the past few months something approaching a peremptory demand that this great religious body remove all restrictions against "such diversions as cannot be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus," commonly admitted to include the modern dance, card playing, gambling, etc. Your Committee would most earnestly urge that this Conference go on record as opposing absolutely any tendency that would encourage our people to look with approval upon these diversions, believing that such practices would greatly hinder them in their spiritual growth.

In this connection, we would make mention of a great national institution that has sprung up in the past few years. We refer to the moving picture. It is doubtful if anything in America is doing more to shape the future of our nation. It is capable of doing infinite good or immeasurable and irreparable harm. Upon the highest authority it is declared that the average picture shown on the screen today is suggestive of almost every kind of evil and is putting before the young a most distorted view of life. To such pictures the Church can not give its endorsement, nor fail to warn her people against them. However, she need not, and must not condemn the entire institution, for that would be to turn herself away from one of the greatest educational forces of our time and to give the entire monopoly of it to the adversary to be used in vitiating the minds, blunting the moral sensibilities and destroying the souls of many.

Let us seek by every honorable means to have all pictures carefully censored and whenever practicable, let the church own her own machine and exhibit to the people the pictures that will entertain, educate and elevate her sons and daughters.

Over against these hindrances to our growth in the Life of the Spirit, we would set certain helps:

First—A larger emphasis upon the importance of preaching a plain, positive, heart-searching, sin-exposing, sin-destroying, life-saving gospel; without frills, without speculation, without apology. Let us hold firmly to the Bible which declares with glorious certitude that Jesus Christ is amply able to save all men from all sin for all time.

Second—A return to Christian testimony. With the passing of the class-meeting our people only rarely have an opportunity to testify in the congregation to the unfailing mercies of God. Let us give the redeemed of the Lord a chance to say so.

Third—An honest, persistent effort to enlist the entire membership in some religious activity. An easy explanation as to why such appalling numbers fall away from their steadfastness is found in the fact that so few, not one in ten, it is said, is engaged in any form of Christian work. The man who is kept busy as a rule is a man whose spiritual growth is most normal and satisfactory.

Finally, let us insist upon building throughout our Conference strictly Christian homes. America having built about everything else that is great, let her now set herself to the task of building stronger, safer and more enduring, the homes of her people and the church in general, and Southern Methodism in particular, must lead the way. In building this type of home, we shall develop the spiritual life of all our people and at the same time we shall begin to give child-culture something of that prominence which it deserves and we shall create an atmosphere in which it will be easy for our boys and girls to hear the earnest age-long, pathetic, almost tragic cry of God to His people "Whom shall we send and who will go for us?"

With our own spiritual life thus strongly, symmetrically and scripturally developed we shall have astonishing numbers rising up all over our Conference and crying with broken, but willing hearts, "Here am I, send me."

T. E. WAGG, Chairman,
J. F. ARMSTRONG, Sec.

SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The Committee submits the following:

1. That the total outstanding subscriptions to this fund amounts to $155,000.00, of which $109,500.00 are pledged in B. and L. stock and $45,500.00 in other forms of obligation, and for further detail as to the status of the account, reference is made to report of J. B. Ivey, Treasurer, and Rev. J. P. Rodgers, Agent.

2. That on account of the protracted and serious illness of Brother Rodgers, our Agent, the canvass for new subscriptions for the year has been limited, and the work of the Committee has been directed largely in the effort to get the B. and L. certificates taken out and in process of maturity.

3. That it is essential that the agency for this fund be continued further, for the purpose of securing additional subscriptions, and to see that the outstanding subscriptions are being kept up, and obligations carried to maturity, and we therefore, recommend a continuance of the agency, and provision made for the support of the agent.

4. The Committee recommends the appointment of Rev. J. P. Rodgers as Agent for the next Conference year.

REPORT ON CHURCH PROPERTY

We wish to commend the wide spread tendency of our people to erect better equipped church buildings. The day has passed for the one-room church, except in such places as dire poverty makes this condition necessary. The church building today must be equipped to handle the problem of the best training of the children of the church. This cannot be done in a one-room building.

The Joint Commission on the Country Church, appointed by the two Conferences in this State, have tendered some valuable findings and we set forth the same as reported by them:

The Joint Commission on the Country Church, representing the two Conferences in North Carolina, begs leave to submit the following statement for the information of the members of this Conference.

The facts herein set forth are compiled from reports of Presiding Elders of twelve districts of the two Conferences. As indicated by these figures we have here a genuine problem presenting many perplexing phases; but one which offers a field of unlimited possibilities; one which has in it a compelling hope and an appeal that must move the heart of the Church as the heart of Jesus was moved by the need of a great multitude by the sea of Galilee.

The problem in the first place, relates to the present inadequate provision for supplying our people with preaching services. In a hundred charges representing 536 churches, there are: two with two churches, four with three churches, 25 with four churches, 27 with 5 churches, 21 with 6 churches, 17 with 7 churches, 4 with 8 churches, and one with ten churches.

Of 718 churches reported, 296 have preaching only once a month, 370 have services two Sundays, 40 on three Sundays, and 12 every Sunday.

A second phase of the problem relates to the inadequate provision for Sunday School work. Of 762 churches reported, there are 567 with auditorium only, with auditorium and vestibule 118, with one additional Sunday School room 23, with two rooms 18, with 3 rooms 26, with four rooms 10. Of the above, only 230 are comfortably heated in winter, and 362 do not have comfortable pews. Of 666 Sunday Schools reported 215 close during the winter. Less than fifty per cent of the churches and grounds are neatly kept.

In the absence of preaching, little or no provision has been made for feeding the flock of Christ. Clearly our present system is inadequate. The issue is before us and we must face it. We cannot do the work of today with the equipment of a century ago.

We urge our Laymen to inform themselves of needed repairs on our churches and parsonages, and to take steps to have such repairs promptly made. Also to see that our property is adequately protected by fire insurance. Our own Fire Insurance Company insures our property at a saving. We recommend it to all our churches.

D. M. LITAKER, Chairman,
G. A. B. HOLDERBY, Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The assets of this Board amounts at present to the sum of $24,050. All of this loaned and secured by first mortgages on real estate, with the exception of a farm in Mecklenburg County.

The Asheville property, by order of the Trustees, and approved by the last Session of this Conference, has been sold at a satisfactory price and the confirmation of the sale will be made in the adoption of this report.

The $3,000.00 left to the Superannuate Fund by the will of Mr. B. D. Heath, has been paid by the executors and the fund placed on interest, the proceeds of which will be paid each year to the Conference claimants. The trustees have appropriated to the Superannuate Fund this year the sum of $1,500.00. $660.00 of this amount coming to us from the Board of Publication and $840.00 from the interest on other funds.

D. ATKINS, Chairman,
J. E. GAY, Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

Your Board of Directors beg leave to report that they have gone into the affairs of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company, covering the period from September 27, 1919, to October 1, 1920, and after a thorough examination, found the books of Secretary and Treasurer in excellent condition.

There is insurance in force at present time, $1,090.910 which represents about fifty per cent increase in business over the previous year. The past year has been the best in the history of the Company. We are pleased to say that the Methodist officials throughout the State are showing their appreciation of the efforts of the management in seeing that the property belonging to the church is adequately protected. Losses for the past year have been nothing. The dividend which is being returned to policy holders represents a direct saving to the church, and gives great satisfaction to the various Boards of Trustees.

We recommend the re-election of J. F. Kirk as director, his term to expire 1925, and the election of C. A. Wood to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. W. Jones.

Your Board would urge the members of the Conference and each Board of Trustees holding property for the church within the bounds of Conference to see that such property is adequately protected in our Company.

E. A. COLE, President.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The Committee on District Conference Records begs to make the following report:

Mount Airy, Winston-Salem, Salisbury, Asheville, Shelby, Charlotte and Greensboro records were in excellent condition. The Greensboro record could be improved slightly, if the various typewritten reports were completely pasted to the pages of the book. As it is, many of them are pasted on the edge, thus making it easier for them to be torn out and lost. The Marion record was covered with several ink splotches, but was otherwise in good condition.

J. L. NELSON, Chairman,
W. A. JENKINS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST SUMMER SCHOOL

The Third Session of the Methodist Summer School held at Trinity College, June 9-18, 1920, proved to be best yet. Approximately, 275 were in attendance through the session, not including those who stayed for a brief time. The number of whom was sufficient to fill the College Dormitories. Of these, the undergraduates from the Western North Carolina Conference numbered 38, who took 118 courses, and from the North Carolina Conference 24, who took 116 courses. Total undergraduates 62. Total number of courses taken, 224.

In addition to the courses mentioned was the one in Theology, by Dr. Rall, the one on the Country Church, by Professor Dawber, and one on the work of the Rural Sunday School by Mr. M. W. Brabham.

The course dealing with the Church of the Open Country, made a start for a still larger effort for aiding the Country Church. A commission on the Country Church was organized with W. B. Shinn, President, and J. E. Blalock, Secretary.

Notable and inspiring speakers were heard in lecture and sermon. Among these were: Dr. Charles L. Goodell, Dr. Harris Franklin Rall, Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, Professor M. A. Dawber, Dr. Clovis Chappell, Dr. F. S. Parker and Dr. R. H. Bennett.

Further plans for enlargement are being worked out and stress is to be laid upon the need for more intensive work. The course in New Testament Exegesis will be given by Dr. A. T. Robertson, and notable Sunday School workers and outstanding preachers will be heard.

M. T. PLYLER, President.

W. H. WILLIS, Secretary.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH

It has become increasingly evident that the Methodist Church must provide for the Methodist boys at our State University. This year there 448 Methodist at the University and about an equal number of Methodist teachers attend the Summer School there.

At the last session of the Annual Conference, a commission from the Board of Missions and Church Extension of our Conference was appointed to co-operate with a like commission from the North Carolina Conference. This joint commission recommends the building of an adequate church at Chapel Hill.

Your Boards of Missions and Church Extension in joint session, suggest the following plan:

That the Boards of Missions of the two Annual Conferences of North Carolina contribute $20,000.00 each, the Church Extension Boards of the two Conferences $10,000.00 each, the General Church Extension Board $20,000.00, the Local Community $20,000. and that the Alumni of the University be canvassed to contribute $50,000.00. Whenever the above mentioned parties shall have complied by cash or subscription, with the proposed plan, then these Boards pledge themselves to provide for their part of the above amount. In the furtherance of this plan, we recommend the continuance of the joint commission of this work.

E. K. McLARTY, Chairman of Board of Missions,
WALTER THOMPSON, Chmn. of Board of Church Ex.
A. W. PLYLER, Sec'y. of the Board of Church Ex.
R. M. COURTNEY, Sec'y. of the Board of Missions.

HOSPITAL COMMITTEE REPORT

We recommend for your adoption the following report:

INASMUCH, as the Children's Home in Winston-Salem is about to establish a Hospital for Children, and

INASMUCH, further, as there is a beautiful site of ample size on our property there on which it may be possible to erect the various units of a general Hospital, and,

INASMUCH, as there is much sentiment in Winston-Salem and throughout the Conference for the erection of such Hospital.

We recommend that the Children's Hospital be considered the possible first unit of a general hospital, and,

That we authorize the Trustees of the Children's Home to foster the sentiment for a general hospital, and to proceed whenever it may seem wise to do so, to add units for hospital purposes, looking to the establishment of the contemplated general hospital.

We request also, in view of the foregoing, that the present Hospital Committee be discharged.

C. M. PICKENS, Chairman,
E. L. BAIN, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE TWELFTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Conference Brotherhood, of the Western North Carolina Conference met in First Methodist Church, Salisbury, North Carolina, Friday afternoon, October 22nd, 1920, at 2:30 o'clock, with W. L. Sherrill, President in the Chair.

W. L. Dawson conducted the Devotional Service in which hymn 556 was sung, after which Brother Dawson led in prayer.

C. M. Pickens read the minutes of the last annual meeting which were approved.

W. L. Sherrill made a statement concerning the growth of the Brotherhood during the past year, especially in the enlistment of new honorary members.

The Brotherhood by a rising vote, thanked the committee who led this campaign; said committee consisting of Fred N. Tate, W. A. Lambeth and M. D. Stockton.

Young men just entering the Conference were asked to join at once.

Fred N. Tate made an inspiring talk, telling how the work was done, and urging that each church make provision for collecting this fund by a committee and a local treasurer.

J. K. Dixon, Local Treasurer from Main Street Church, Gastonia, told how he worked his list.

C. M. Campbell moved that the General Committee be continued and that it be asked to continue the campaign for new members and assist the local churches to arrange to care for those who have already joined. The motion was discussed and adopted.

W. L. Sherrill asked all preachers to stand who will bring the claims of the Brotherhood to the attention of their congregations soon—large number stood.

E. E. Williamson, after a spirited talk, moved that the constitutional limitations requiring all members of the Annual Conference, who wish to become members of the Brotherhood, to do so within ten years after entering the Conference on Trial, be rescinded. After some discussion the motion was tabled.

C. M. Short, one of the men appointed to audit the treasurer's books, read the treasurer's report. This report was highly gratifying. It was stated by the Treasurer that for the first time he reported a surplus. This surplus has been accumulating for years from interest on money on hand, and from some back dues. It was ordered on motion of D. Atkins, that in view of this surplus, the Treasurer pay to the beneficiaries of the last three claims, $1,750.00 each. Also that all claims that may become due in the following year shall be paid the same amount.

The following officers were elected for next year:

President, W. L. Sherrill; Vice-President, W. R. Ware; Secretary and Treasurer, C. M. Pickens. Fred N. Tate urged all the preachers to stir up interest in this matter, also urging all the preachers themselves to join.

On motion the Brotherhood adjourned for preaching by Dr. Morrison.

(Signed)

W. L. SHERRILL, President.

C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

MEETING OF HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference, held its fourth annual meeting in the First Church at Salisbury, on Tuesday evening, October 19, 1920. Rev. D. Atkins, President of the Society, presiding.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

After appropriate remarks relative to the early history of Methodism in North Carolina, the President introduced Rev. Dr. T. V. Ivey, editor of the Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tennessee, as the speaker of the evening. Dr. Ivey was among his home people and had an inspiring theme for the occasion. He spoke on the "Life and Labor of Green Hill," one of the most conspicuous characters in the early history of Methodism in this State and in Tennessee. The address contained much historic matter of value and will be preserved among the archives of the Society.

On motion of A. W. Plyler, an offering was taken for incidental expenses of the Society. This offering amounted to $17.00.

Mr. Blain moved that the usual Committee on Nomination be appointed. This motion prevailed and the Chair appointed N. R.

Richardson, Z. Paris and Jno. W. Moore. The Committee reported the following nominations which were confirmed:

President, R. M. Taylor; Vice-President, W. L. Sherrill; Secretary and Treasurer, H. M. Blain; Member of Executive Committee, A. W. Plyler.

On motion a special Committee was appointed to co-operate for this Conference, with the Committee of the North Carolina Conference, in an effort to preserve the old Green Hill home in Franklin county as a memento of early Methodism, and to preserve the same as a home for retired Methodist preachers.

The Committee appointed by the Chair is as follows: H. M. Blain, A. W. Plyler, W. L. Sherrill.

Rev. A. M. Taylor came before the Society with a proposition to publish a sketch book of the Conference. This book would contain a short biographical sketch of each member and would be provided for by the members, individually.

On motion of W. L. Dawson, the Society voted unanimous endorsement of the undertaking.

There being no further business, the Society adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Ivey.

D. ATKINS, President,

H. M. BLAIN, Secretary.

MEMOIRS

AVERY S. ABERNETHY

Avery Samuel Abernethy was a son of Luther and Mary Jane Abernethy of Lincoln County; born May 11th, 1893 and dying in the Watts Hospital, Durham, N. C., July 22nd, 1920 at 9:50 P. M. He was but a little more than 27 years of age.

His family were Lutherans, but young Abernethy's conversion in his fifteenth year at which time he joined the Pisgah Church, on the Lincolnton Circuit, carried his Father with him to the Methodist Church.

On July 27th, 1912, Dr. S. B. Turrentine, then on the Shelby District, and Rev. J. H. Robertson, of the Lincolnton Circuit, he was licensed to preach. He was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference at Reidsville in 1915, and on November 18th, 1917, at the Conference at Asheville, Bishop James Atkins ordained him a Deacon. On October 26th, 1919, at the session in Greensboro, Bishop U. V. W. Darlington ordained him Elder.

He has served the following Charges: During the Summer and Fall of 1915, he was Junior Preacher on the Rock Springs Circuit, 1915-1917—two years, Sparta Circuit. 1917-1918—one year, Elk Park Circuit. 1918-1919—one year, Lewisville Circuit. 1919-1920, eight months, Orange Circuit.

Besides the Public School, he attended Rutherford College four years. During his Pastorate on the Lewisville Circuit, with the advice of friends and with the consent of the Bishop, he decided to enter Trinity College for further equipment for his life work, and was appointed Student in Trinity College. Having pursued his studies but a short while, upon the advice of his physician, he gave up his student work and at the session of the North Carolina Conference was appointed to Orange Circuit. He had made a very fine beginning in this work—had won all hearts by his consecration, energy and personality, but at the Durham District Conference one present who knew him well says that though cheerful, he could see that the death summons was on him. The night following the Conference the malady that he had been fighting for some time seized him. He was carried to the hospital and after two weeks of great suffering, but tender nursing by his sister-in-law, a professional nurse, was graciously released.

Brother Abernethy's appointment to the Sparta Country came as a result that year of a special effort to secure bright, capable men for that territory. His ministry in the North Wilkesboro District sustained his reputation for studious habits and industrious devotion to the Church. His preaching, pastoral and administrative work on the Lewisville Circuit was highly satisfactory. His preaching this year in his Churches around Chapel Hill was fast making for him a place in the esteem of the Eastern Conference.

On July 19th, 1915, he was happily married to Miss Fleta Irene Ramsey, daughter of J. W. and Edna J. Ramsey of Gaston County. Two little girls, four and two and a half years old, respectively, blessed this union. Besides his wife and children he is survived by his parents, two brothers and four sisters. His father and mother-in-law moved to Trinity College some years ago for the education of their sons, which was one of the occasions of Brother Abernethy's going to Trinity. The father-in-law passed away January 18th, 1920, which makes double the grief of the widow. Through all these afflictions both families have had faithful sympathy and timely assistance from Professor F. S. Aldridge, Head Master, Trinity Park High School. He and the writer conducted the funeral of Brother Abernethy, July 24th, at the Carrboro Church in the suburbs of Chapel Hill, to which the entire Circuit had come to mourn the loss of a much loved Pastor. It was a moving spectacle to witness in the faces that thronged the building and church yard the uniform expression of sorrow. The floral offerings were beautiful, and music appropriate.

He died in the "Teachable Twenties," after heroically seeking for the best education in his reach. It is fitting that his body should have been borne through the long shady avenues at Chapel Hill and in the Cemetery hard by the State's great University, laid to rest. It is the widow's fixed hope and purpose to carry out her husband's cherished desire, to give the little girls the very best educational advantages.

Brother Abernethy had unusual gifts, possessed of a bright mind, a winsome personality, he was an attractive speaker and his death seems peculiarly regrettable. But God makes no mistakes. If not here, he will hereafter make full disclosure and vindication of his inscrutable and unerring wisdom.

The sharer with him of his early toils, the widow and the little ones have as their rich possession these youthful years of vigorous action.

Charges by him served where tender and lasting ties have been formed will be reaping through the future years the benefit of his Seed Sowing. Christ will be Husband to the widow, Father to the Fatherless, and Shepherd to the sorrowing flocks.

FRANK SILER.

REV. JOSEPH D. ARNOLD

In January, 1919, the writer received a letter from Brother Arnold in which he made request as follows: "I want to ask a kindness of you as my former pastor and friend. It is that when it is the pleasure of the Lord to call me away that you prepare an article for our Advocate and to be read at our Memorial Conference Service."

The Lord has called him, and now it devolves upon me to fulfill the promise made to him in response to his request.

I was Brother Arnold's pastor for four years, during which time we were closely and intimately associated. I have taken my observations, therefore, not in a day, but during four years of fellowship with him; not while he was in the rush of an active ministry, when it is easy to be of good cheer, but in the lonely days of superannuation, and in the declining years of his earthly life, and even when he was much enfeebled by the infirmities of age. But his life grew richer, fuller, sweeter and better with the lengthening thereof. He was ripe and mellow for the other world, and could say, "I have a desire to depart and be with Christ." He loved his Lord, and there was much about him a sacred halo due to his faith and devotion, of which I was always conscious when in his presence. He did me good. His life was a heavenly benediction to me. I always left him after a little visit, desiring to be better, and somehow, I was made better by my association with him.

I loved him, and not only looked upon him as a "father in Israel," but as a prophet of God. I felt that he had some of those qualities which closely related him to the old saints of Bible record. Like Abraham, "his faith wavered not;" like John the Baptist, he was no "reed shaken by the wind," but was strong in his convictions and fixed in his purpose; and he was like the apostles, for "we took knowledge of him that he had been with Jesus."

The Christ spirit was in him. I never knew one in whom the graces of Christian character expressed themselves more beautifully. His was a transparent life—open, sincere, honest, simple, and even now while I am writing I am under the force of his character which forbade every insincere thing, all sham and pretence. He was a guileless man.

Gentleness, with which he was robed, was a quality of his nature, and he was never clothed with that which nettles sensitive souls.

He was a broad man; liberal enough to concede worth and merit to those who might chance to differ from him. He was a big man; big enough to be delivered from the enslavement of petty grievances and to look with charity upon the weaknesses and offenses of others. He was an unselfish man, living much in his thought and prayer and ministrations for others. He was a strong man. His strength was the strength of solidity. He was as solid as a rock—immovable. He was no wave of the sea, driven and tossed. He was rooted and grounded in love. Steadfastness marked his goings; definiteness of purpose characterized his every movement. His strength was the strength of sincerity. No fraud, no camouflage, no dishonesty, no affection, but genuineness and sincerity were so manifest that one can most fitly express it in the words, "pure gold."

But his strength was also the strength of purity. Paul's suggested field of thinking was enough for him, when he said, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." I have no doubt but that Brother Arnold confined himself to these legitimate realms of thought, and thus great and beautiful development came to him, and at the same time he was saved from the low and sordid.

He was a splendid preacher. His pulpit ministrations were very acceptable, being of the orthodox order, the product of his holy meditation and simple faith. He was quite frequently called upon to occupy the pulpits of other denominations. He was kind and gentle in his preaching, yet he dared to speak the truth with boldness.

He loved his brethren. For years after he, of right, had a claim upon the superannuate fund, he repeatedly said, "Tell the brethren to allow my share to go to others."

His earthly paradise was home, and he delighted to have others share the joys of his home life. No one could make a guest feel more welcome, or contribute more to the pleasure of a visit.

But he is gone. He fell on sleep Friday evening, August the 20th, 1920, at half past nine o'clock. He died from an attack of cystitis at the ripe age of eighty-two. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Bessie Mosely, of Virginia. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Anna Clark, daughter of General David Clark, of Halifax, N. C. For nearly thirty years she walked with him, sharing the joys and sorrows of his life.

Besides his wife he leaves two noble sons and four daughters.

Brother Arnold was born in Mecklenburg County, Va., March the 15th, 1839. His father and mother were devout Methodists, his father being a local preacher. Ancestral forces united to produce a strong character, and there was added to this the riches of proper environment in his early life, and the re-enforcement of the Divine.

He graduated from Randolph-Macon College at the age of twenty-one. Soon after the Civil War began he enlisted in the Confederacy in the first company from his native county. He did real service and lost his right arm in the battle of Malvern Hill in 1862. He was a brave soldier in the cause of his Southland, but was no less true as a soldier of Jesus Christ for whom he cheerfully and faithfully fought.

He was licensed to preach in the spring of 1863, and therefore preached fifty-seven years, for he preached up to the last. A long, faithful record in the ministry!

Soon after the close of the war he had charge of the Danville Female College, which position he filled for four or five years. He then went to Jonesboro, N. C., and established the Jonesboro High School. After four years as principal of the school he joined the North Carolina Conference in 1879, and was appointed to Tarboro charge, where he remained three years. Here he built a parsonage. He next served Jonesboro three years, where he built a church, parsonage and high school.

He next served Henderson charge four years, and here he built a church. He then served Reidsville charge one year, and at the next Conference dropped out of the pastorate and took a position as professor in the Asheville Female College, where he taught for five years.

He re-entered the pastorate and served the following named charges:

Kings Mountain, two years; Forest Hill, Concord, three years; Lexington, four years, (here he built a church); Rutherfordton, three years; Newton, one year; Bethel, three years.

The record shows that he was abundant in labors, and that he served his church faithfully and well. He is now at home with his Lord, whom he loved and whom he served. Peace to his blessed memory.

M. F. MOORES.

REV. JOHN WESLEY JONES

Rev. John Wesley Jones was born September the 4th, 1854, and died September 12th, 1920. Between these dates was a life lived of more than ordinary consideration. Born, reared, married and died in Iredell County, North Carolina. Known, respected and loved by the entire citizenship of his native community, besides a very large circle of acquaintances made wherever his itinerant life called him.

Brother Jones was reared in the Presbyterian faith, but in his youth chose the Methodist church, and Methodism and Armenianism never had a more ardent advocate. He gave his heart to God in 1873, and very soon felt his call to the Gospel ministry. He married Miss Maggie McPherson on the 9th day of April, 1872, and God alone knows, and eternity itself will reveal how much this good woman meant to this faithful itinerant. Soon after their marriage they moved to Rutherford College where under the tutorage of the sainted Dr. R. L. Abernethy, brother Jones was prepared for his life-work. During these days of struggle for an education they kept boarders, and part of the time after he was licensed to preach he supplied the old South Mountain Mission. In the year 1880 at the annual Conference held in Winston-Salem, he was admitted on trial in the traveling connection.

The following are the appointments he served:

Double Shoals Circuit, 1881-2; King's Mountain Circuit, 1883-4; Kinston Station, 1885-6; Madison Circuit, 1887; Maxton and Caledonia, 1888-9; High Point Station, 1890,-1-2-3; Hendersonville Station, 1894-5; Morganton District, 1896--7-8; Morganton Circuit, 1899-1900-1.

At this period his health having failed him he was granted the superannuate relation, and moved to Mooresville, North Carolina, and lived the remainder of his life, except a few brief months in which he undertook to serve Mount Zion station and Race Street station, his health not permitting him to continue in these fields of service.

His health was much impaired, yet he did not spend the years in Mooresville in idleness, for he served the Mooresville circuit four years, and St. John's church four years. This later church he founded and aided in the erection of a neat house of worship which now stands as a monument to his energy. This church was the child and joy of his later years.

Four years ago he was appointed "junior preacher" at Mooresville station, during which time he has been of great help to the pastor of that church. He often preached and administered the communion to the great joy and delight of all who attend this large church. This year he was given charge of Dixie church, a new charge just established in North Mooresville, and was abundant in labors until within a few weeks of his translation to heaven.

It is likewise to be remembered that he was very efficient in labors within three other fields of service while he "waited by the way." He did effective work for the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and traveled extensively for Rutherford College, and its but stating a fact to say that to him more than any other man is due the credit of saving this old and honored Institution to the Methodist Church. Also, he did yeoman service in successfully establishing the Methodist Mutual Insurance Company of North Carolina.

Some men loom large in one sphere of activity, and know little else. Brother Jones was large in many fields of life and community service. A good farmer, a good business man—he served for eight years on the School Board in Mooresville and was one of the most influential members of the Board, and no man has ever lived in Mooresville who has wielded a larger or better influence than he.

Brother Jones' itinerary called him to serve mission, station, circuit and district, and he always brought things to pass. Every charge was quickened into new life under his ministry. He preached a full gospel. He lived a high and holy life—was always cheerful and optimistic, and made all those with whom he came in contact feel a warm sympathetic heart.

Such a rich experience he possessed. He not only believed and preached a high standard of religious attainment but best of all he lived it.

Citizen, neighbor, husband, pastor, preacher and Christian—place the word “great” before each of these terms and you have the epitomised life-history of this good man.

From the mountains to the sea, North Carolina has been blessed by the ministry of this sainted man of God. “They brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow them.” So is the influence of a good man in a community. We who yet live in the community are beneficiaries of the goodly heritage he left us, for: “He being dead yet liveth.”

The funeral service was conducted by the writer on September 14th, assisted by the Revs. W. A. Newell, J. Ed. Thompson, E. N. Crowder, T. A. Groce, and J. H. Green. During the hour of service, the business houses and schools closed, and a throng of men and women of every walk of life filled the large church and many failed to have room in the building, and a deep solemnity prevailed the entire community. Mooresville's Willow Valley cemetery now holds the remains of this servant of God who lived and wrought so mightily for good and who is now reaping a rich reward.

LEE A. FALLS

REV. J. C. ROWE, D. D.,

After nearly forty-three years of uninterrupted service in the Methodist ministry, Dr. J. C. Rowe is dead. He was stricken with influenza on Monday morning, February 2, and on Saturday developed pneumonia, passing away on the following Monday morning, at the South Main Street parsonage, Salisbury. He was buried at the Chestnut Hill cemetery at Salisbury, on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Joseph Columbus Rowe was born in Rowan County, eight miles east of Salisbury, on August 4, 1848. He joined the North Carolina Conference at its session at Salisbury in 1877, having been licensed to preach in 1874. He received the beginning of his training in books in the public schools of Rowan county, in Franklin Academy, a school five miles west of Salisbury, and at Olin Academy, an Institution twelve miles north of Statesville. His education was wrought out in years of reading and thought, subsequent to his school days, for he was ever a student. Perhaps he had read as widely and pondered as deeply as any cotemporary of his in the Western North Carolina Conference.

In 1872, he was married to Nancy Adelle Brown, and was the father of six children—Mrs. A. M. Frye, of Bryson City; Rev. G. T. Rowe, D. D., of Winston-Salem; Miss Eugenia Rowe, of Asheville; Dr. Henry B. Rowe, of Mount Airy; C. W. Rowe, of New York; and a daughter, Laura, who died in 1911.

For the first eleven years of his ministry, Dr. Rowe served circuits with such acceptability that in 1888, he was assigned to the First Church, Statesville; since which time, he has served in the largest and most important stations and districts of the Conference. It is a rather remarkable co-incidence that he should have been born, reared, converted and joined the church and have been licensed to preach, all in Rowan county; that he should have joined the Conference at Salisbury, that he should have served two of its congregations as pastor, should have been Presiding Elder of the Salisbury District for two terms, and that he should have rounded out his career as pastor of one of the Salisbury churches, should be buried at Salisbury, and that the last time his name shall be called officially, in the Conference of which he was a member, is at the session being held at Salisbury. So much as a Methodist itinerant may have a home, Salisbury was Dr. Rowe's home. He goes from his field, perhaps as he himself would have chosen, directly from active work to reward.

He served, in order, the following charges:

1877-8—Alexander Circuit; 1879—Farmington Circuit; 1880—Yadkinville Circuit; 1881-2—Elkin and Jonesville; 1883-4—Olin Circuit; 1885—Lenoir Circuit; 1886-7—Albemarle Circuit; 1888-9—Statesville Station; 1890-1—Monroe Station; 1892—Franklin District; 1893—Statesville Station; 1894-5-6-7—Statesville District; 1898-9—West Market Street, Greensboro; 1900-1-2—Charlotte District; 1903—Monroe Central; 1904-5—Salisbury, First Church; 1906—Concord-Central; 1907—Asheville District; 1908-9-10-11—Salisbury District; 1912-13—Asheville-Central; 1914—Charlotte District; 1915-16-17-18—Salisbury District; 1919—South Main Street, Salisbury.

Carlyle defines his hero as the man who can, the man who is able. Perhaps it is this quality that lifts a man above the general level, that differentiates him from the crowd, that sets him apart in any assemblage as a leader among men. This quality, as Carlyle describes it, is not an acquired power, it is not a quality evolved or produced by environment or training. It is inherent and native.

This quality, that Carlyle describes, Dr. Rowe possessed. The thing that always impressed one in his presence was his strength of personality. He was an unusually strong man. One felt it first, then came to realize it the more fully and the more certainly as he came to know the man.

Perhaps the element of strength most easily discerned was his strength of intellect. He had a wonderful mind. His thought was clear to the point of transparency. There may be assigned two reasons for this; first, that he thought clear through a proposition before he delivered an opinion. He was not satisfied with mere impressions. Mental impression is not knowledge, it is presumption. Dr. Rowe did not presume, he knew. His mind went back of impression to underlying causes and definite reasons. His thoughts therefore were conclusions definitely arrived at, and therefore clear and certain.

The other reason is that his mind was of the logical order. His habit was to analyze everything from a new word to a new statement of philosophy. His very nature led him to dissect and to re-assemble, so that by analysis and synthesis, he was almost sure to arrive at the truth. This habit of mind brought clear comprehension and understanding to him, and he had the happy faculty of making what was clear to him, clear to others. The very clarity of his thought revealed its force and cogency. Back of the forceful thoughts one came to recognize almost intuitively and immediately the strength of intellect in the man.

The second element of strength in the man's personality was his wide sympathy. This was not so easily discernible as the first named quality. He did not wear his heart on his sleeve. But he had the power, in a high degree, of being able to put himself in the other man's place—and to feel with him. Perhaps no man is really capable of sympathy who has not drunk life's cup to the lees. In his three score and ten years, he had felt deeply, and out of his experience he knew how to enter other's experience, their hopes and doubts and fears. As an evidence of his sympathy, he was ever tolerant in his attitude towards others. He could allow other men to think vagrant thoughts without any desire to read them out of the synagogue, and he could look on other men straying from the narrow path without evidencing any desire to call down fire and brimstone on their defenceless heads. If he ever became intolerant, it was at the sight of the man too free in his denunciation of the frailties of men; if he ever harbored hatred, it was that hate of hate that the poet describes; a righteous, hot indignation against the intolerant man.

The third element that impressed one in the force of this man's personality, was his strength of will. It was not a strength of mere obstinacy, not even a strength that seemed to desire to assert itself; but a strength that seemed just the man that he was, firmly going forward to the goal that he had set for himself. He never allowed small things to deflect his purpose. Rains and sleet and snows never kept him from his appointments. He simply did not consider these minor things, and could hardly understand how any other man could take such things seriously. He never allowed the size of his congregations to affect his preaching. His own practice was perhaps expressed in the advice he once gave another, "Never seek to gain your inspiration from your congregation, get your inspiration from your subject." A little thing like a small congregation, a mere physical indisposition was not allowed to detract from the object he had in view, and that was to get his message over, to deliver his soul by pouring out the truth.

As to what he accomplished, no man can measure it. We know that in practically every community into which he ever moved, that he was put down almost at once, as among the leading citizens of that community, and that he held that place to the day of his death in the hearts of those who knew him, though it may have been years since he had lived in that particular place. And this he did without any straining after effect. He simply and naturally took the place that belonged to him by the force of his own personality.

Another thing we know. He was the inspiration that set the feet of many a young man on the path of higher achievement. These things we know, there remain a great many things we do not know, but we know enough to know that a great man has gone from us.

There is one trait that, after all may be the key to the man. It is his faith in God. He did not believe everything, but there was one in whom his faith was always unshaken, —God. In conversation some months before his death, he said, "I have read a great deal about what men have said about heaven, some of the theories may be true, I do not know; one thing I know, God is there, and with that I am content." His was a profound and satisfying faith in God.

JOHN F. KIRK

JOSEPH ALEXANDER WIGGINS.

Was born in what is now Swain, but at the time of his birth was a part of Macon County, North Carolina, March 3rd, 1832, and passed away at his home in Robbinsville, Graham County, N. C., April 6th, 1920.

Brother Wiggins professed faith in Christ and joined the M. E. Church, South, in 1856. The following year he was licensed to exhort. He was licensed to preach and admitted on trial into the Holston Conference in 1859. At that Conference he was appointed to Cleveland Circuit in Tennessee, and served that work until the breaking out of the war between the States in 1861, when he enlisted in the 2nd Tennessee Cavalry in which he served the Confederacy as Chaplain for the four years of the War.

On August 8th, 1866, Brother Wiggins was united in marriage to Miss Mary Jane Hayes, to which union was born eight children—six of whom with the widow, are still living.

Brother Wiggins had an active ministry of 32 years, having served the following Charges: Cleveland Ct., Robbinsville Mission and Murphy Ct., Madisonville, Athens Ct., Waynesville, Murphy Ct., Hayesville Ct., Bakersville Ct., Boone Ct., Webster Ct., North Haywood Ct., Boone Ct., Rye Cove, (Va.) Ct., Robbinsville Ct., Whittier Ct., and Robbinsville again. He was superannuated in 1892, but since superannuation he served as Supply on the Robbinsville work for perhaps as many as ten years.

In December, 1884, he moved his family for the last time into Graham County, and settled on a farm one and a half miles east of Robbinsville, where he lived till Nov. 1919, when he moved into the town of Robbinsville.

During the 36 years that he lived and worked in Graham County, he preached in all sections of the County, and was loved and highly respected by all sects and creeds. He was always in favor of anything that was for the upbuilding of the community and for the furthering of the cause of Christ. He was ever fearless in speaking the truth. He was a man of an iron jaw, who knew no compromise with evil in any form. The early days of his ministry were especially heroic. His life was often threatened, and sometimes attempted. But he was never known to turn back in the face of danger. Though being often notified not to come again into certain communities at the peril of physical violence, he never failed to go. He was never known to shirk a duty, nor to refuse or fail to go where called or sent. He was true to the best traditions of our Methodist itineracy and was a typical Methodist preacher.

Brother Wiggins lived for more than 88 years. In his last days he thanked God that none of his Children had ever dishonored him, and that none of them had ever suffered hunger during the years of his Ministry. He knew in Whom he trusted. He did not study how he should obtain a livelihood, or of how much he should receive for his labors. His salary was always pitifully small. But he cultivated the soil, raising what crops he could to supplement his salary. He never murmured or complained of his lot. He died full of faith in a good old age. BLESSED BE HIS MEMORY!

M. T. SMATHERS.

REV. CHARLES H. CURTIS.

Charles H. Curtis was born in Clay County Feb. 18, 1867, and passed to his reward May 12, 1920 at Maiden, N. C.

Brother Curtis was married twice, first to Miss Laura May Brooks, and to this union were born seven children. While he was on his last pastoral charge (Lenoir Circuit) Sister Curtis died, and he was left with several children which needed close attention and Brother Curtis felt that he could not continue to travel and preach and give them the needed attention and he asked to be discontinued which request was granted.

Some time after this he was married to Mrs. Martha Ann Hefner Caldwell, and to this union were born two children.

After serving several charges as supply, Brother Curtis was admitted on trial at Greensboro in 1905. He served the following Charges:

1898—Burnsville Circuit, 1904-5—Hiawassee Circuit, 1906-7—Sulphur Springs Circuit, 1908-9—Leicester Circuit, 1910-11—Maiden Circuit, 1912-13—Lenoir Circuit.

Brother Curtis was a true man in any sphere of life, I have known him in different relations to the church and community, I was his Pastor at Hayesville—found him struggling with the odds against him with a desire to preach the Gospel, and persuaded him to launch out into the work which I have had no cause to regret. He was the embodiment of courage, which in a large measure belonged to all the family of which he was a part.

While he was Pastor at Maiden, he had to defend the doctrine of baptism, infant baptism as well as the mode of baptism. The Baptists secured the most able man they could of their denomination and Brother Curtis came out with flying colors victorious on every score.

I feel sure we know where to find him, he has gone to receive his reward. We shall not greet him here. But I trust we shall meet him in the great Conference on the other side.

E. MYERS.

Mary Susan Dalton, wife of Rev. J. T. Ratledge, was born Feb. 22, 1869—died August 7, 1920—married June 20, 1903. She joined the Methodist Church when a child—was devout, active in Christian work, a great help to her husband in his ministry, was loved by all who knew her, and a great multitude attended her funeral.

Mrs. W. B. Lyda, widow of the late Rev. W. B. Lyda, died at Weaverville, N. C., June 4, 1920. She was a saintly woman, earnest in service and an inspiration to her husband during the long period of his itinerant life. Since his departure eight years ago, she waited patiently and with faith for her release, and when the Messenger came she was ready and passed beyond in triumph.

Mrs. Fannie (Robinson) Bagby was born March 2, 1853; married August 31, 1875 to Rev. W. M. Bagby, and died November 7, 1919. She was a woman of strong mind, strong faith and deep consecration. She was a devoted wife and mother and for forty-five years braved all the hardships and enjoyed all the blessings which come from faithful service in the itinerant life. When the end came she was not alarmed but entered peacefully into her eternal reward.

Mary Ellen (Porter) Terrell was born in Rutherford, but when ten years old moved with her parents to Haywood County. When fourteen she professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Church and on August 25, 1874, was married to Rev. P. L. Terrell. She loved God and honored the Church. She was grounded in the doctrine. Her religion was of the robust, virile type. She loved her husband and her children, and was faithful through all the pilgrimage to every obligation to her family, to her church and to the world.

Alice (Hoyle) Falls was born of Godly parentage in Cleveland County Feb. 21, 1860. Was married to Rev. L. A. Falls, December 30, 1888 and passed triumphantly to her reward Feb. 19, 1920. She was a source of strength to her husband in his ministry,—an active worker in the vineyard of the Lord. She kept the home fires burning, was a blessing to her children, a support to her husband, a friend to sinners and a comforter of sorrowing saints. She suffered much in her latter days but was resigned to her affliction and when release came she went home to Heaven.

MRS. M. G. ERVIN

Mrs. Ola Elberta Alexander Ervin was born in Rowan County January 23rd, 1897. Converted when 12 years old and joined the Methodist Church in Woodleaf. On November 22nd, 1917, she was married to Rev. M. G. Ervin. After an illness lasting for several days she died on July 23rd, 1920. During their brief married life Mrs. Ervin made many friends. Her manner was always gentle, and by her loyalty and devotion to the work of her husband, she made his ministry more efficient.
